[Despatch Abstract.]

Subs:- Legislative Assembly Question No. 79 - Starred - Dispute between employers of Co-operative Societies and their employees under the Trade Disputes Act - Reference to arbitration - Papers - Recorded.

ARBITRATION UNDER THE TRADE DISPUTES ACT.

*79 Q. - SRI S. NAGAPPA: Will the Hon. the Minister for Industries and Labour be pleased to state whether the Government propose to refer to arbitration the dispute between the employers of co-operative societies and their employees under the Trade Disputes Acts as was done in the case of dispute between Federation of Union of bank employees and 21 major banks in Bombay?

THE HON. SRI V. V. GIRI: "If the reference is generally to all disputes (other than those relating to disciplinary cases), the Registrar of Co-operative Societies will take action to settle the dispute under the powers vested in him by the Madras Co-operative Societies Act. The Trade Disputes Act does not provide for arbitration."

SRI S. NAGAPPA: "May I suggest to the Hon. Minister, Sir, that as the District Registrar of Co-operative Societies happens to be the head of the department there will not be any justice done to the employees of the department if he is entrusted with this work?"

THE HON. SRI V. V. GIRI: "I do not agree, Sir."
